In the event a player is sent off for fighting, the player will not be permitted to play in any other game in the tournament. Any coach receiving a red card shall be sent off. He or she must then leave the field of play to the satisfaction of the referee. Any player or coach who has been sent off and then participates in a game from which they have been suspended will cause their team to automatically forfeit the game. The game will be scored as a forfeit. All last game red cards are forwarded to the AYSA D&R Committee for review. The AYSA D&R Committee will respond directly to these cards. Passes withheld following the last game will be sent to the AYSA office with exception of Out of State passes and US Club Soccer Passes. NOTE: The team of any player or coach that is sent off will receive minus one point (-1) against their tournament standings.

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY The Arsenal Challenge has adopted a policy of zero tolerance with respect to dissent, player abuse and/or referee abuse from coaches, players and spectators. We request your assistance in keeping yourself, your team, your sideline and your spectators in compliance. Please help us to show respect for the great game of soccer and all of its players by not allowing abusive comments or behaviors.

If offensive/abusive behavior comes from a player, the referee will use his/her yellow and red cards as per FIFA Laws of the Game.

If dissent or abusive behavior comes from a sideline, the game will be stopped. The referee will confer with the appropriate coach and issue a verbal warning. Coaches at this time should convey the possible consequences of further dissent or abuse to his/her spectators. If further dissent or abuse occurs from the sideline, the game will be stopped. The offending person(s) will be required to leave the field of play and remove themselves to the parking lot. If they refuse to leave, the coach of their team will be ejected from the game (sent off).
